

CNDE ISNDCM™-XIV Sponsorship Descriptions

Listed below are the available sponsorship packages for CNDE's International Symposium for the Nondestructive Characterization of Materials ISNDCM™-XIV. Please review the options, associated costs, and benefits at each level to determine which one best suits your company. While we offer four (4) different options, we can accept a total of nine (9) sponsors – be sure to view the available number of sponsors under each option when reviewing the information. If you request a sponsorship package that has already been negotiated, we will contact you with the remaining options. To indicate your selection, please complete the attachment entitled CNDE Sponsorship Form.
